Saturday, August 19th Team Accomplishments:

- Fairview Campground area does have cell service and radio. Team members have been coordinating with their point of contact, Darcy Weseman, PAO, Umatilla NF, during and at end of shift.
- Team Umatilla:

Dale

- Beanblossom attends NFJD Ranger District morning briefing.
- About 130 visitors total. Busy day.
- 1,129 vehicles total drove down Hwy 395.
- Most of the people that stopped were well prepared, knew where they were going and knew the fire restrictions. Many of them were headed for the center line of the path of totality.
- Tollbridge Campground has 2 available sites.
- Traffic wasn't steady but came and went in waves.
- At one time they had 7 vehicles all stopped at the info center.

Fairview

- About 65 visitors total.
- Still lots of questions about places to go. Majority of these visitors were people scouting to find a good location and get information on where to go to see the solar eclipse.
- Mitchell was a high area of interest from visitors.
- Traffic was heavy, but overall still fairly moderate.
- Farthest visitors were from Norway and France.
